

SALEM-Immanuel Lutheran College
The Hong Kong Jockey Club Life-wide Learning Fund (The Fund) (2018-19)

Issued on 7th November, 2018

A. Purpose

“The Hong Kong Jockey Club Life-wide Learning Fund” (The Fund) has been established since 2002. It aims to support needy students in primary and secondary schools to participate in life-wide learning (LWL) activities organized or recognized by school, with the aim of unleashing students’ potential to achieve whole-person development.

B. Scope of subsidies

- (a) extracurricular activities organized or recognized by school, e.g. interest classes, school teams and group activities (cheerleading), art appreciation and concerts, visits to museums and cultural heritage trails or participation in community services, etc. (including transportation, activity fees, admission fees, purchase of musical instruments and tutor fees, etc.) and
- (b) overseas learning activities organized by school

If the activity is an overseas learning activity, students may also apply for the School-based After-school Learning and Support Scheme at the same time, provided that two application forms are submitted. It should be noted that the total amount of subsidy available to students for the same activity under different funding schemes shall not exceed the fee of the activity.

C. Target

All S.1-S.6 students who have participated in extracurricular activities organized or recognized by school and meet one of the following criteria may apply for the subsidy.

- 1. Students receiving "Comprehensive Social Security Assistance" (CSSA).
- 2. Students receiving full grant under School Textbook Assistance Scheme (STAS-Full).
- 3. Students defined as “financially needy” by the school, e.g. receiving half grant under School Textbook Assistance Scheme (STAS-Half).

D. Amount of subsidy

- (a) The amount of subsidy is subject to adjustment with reference to the financial condition of the family.
- (b) Application can be made only when the activity fee is $40 or above.
- (c) The amount of subsidy will be adjusted with reference to the number of participants and the cost involved.
